

Minute Message

The pastor asked his children, "What is gray, has a bushy tail, and gathers nuts in the fall?" One child hesitantly answered, "I know the answer should be Jesus," he began, "but it sure sounds like a squirrel to me."

That is a humorous story but always remember that Jesus is the answer to all of life's problems!